

Boring CPO sets its Tuesday agenda

The Boring Community Planning Organization has scheduled its next meeting to begin at 7 p.m. Tuesday, July 7, at the main building of the Boring Fire Department on Highway 212 in Boring.

Anyone wishing to register to vote at the CPO for the first time must bring a document showing a current address of property ownership or residency within the boundaries of the CPO.

The meeting will include reports on Highway 212, land-use issues, Boring water and fire districts, announcements about urban and rural reserves and Metro's forecast, reports from the communications committee as well as a treasurer's report.

Also included is opportunity for public comment.
